ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION¹

The Respondents' Motion for Reconsideration of the Board's Supplemental Decision and Order reported at 366 NLRB No. 144 (2018) is denied. The Respondents have not demonstrated extraordinary circumstances warranting reconsideration under Section 102.48(c)(1) of the Board's Rules and Regulations.²

Dated, Washington, D.C., November 26, 2018.

John F. Ring, Chairman

Lauren McFerran, Member

Marvin E. Kaplan, Member

(SEAL)

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

¹ The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel. Member Emanuel is recused and took no part in the consideration of this case.

² Chairman Ring did not participate in the Board's prior decision in this case. He agrees that the Respondents have not established that reconsideration is warranted under the standard specified in Sec. 102.48(c)(1).

Member Kaplan dissented in the underlying proceeding, asserting that the Board lacked the authority to order a make whole remedy that could result in a windfall to employees. Nevertheless, he joins his colleagues in denying the motion for reconsideration because the Respondents have failed to demonstrate extraordinary circumstances warranting reconsideration of the Board's Order.
